

Josselyn Ivanov

EDUCATION

HARVARD UNIVERSITY GRADUATE SCHOOL OF DESIGN

MASTER IN DESIGN STUDIES, 2016

Advanced Placement, With Distinction

Concentration: Critical Conservation

Thesis: "Un-Greening Golden Gate Park," winner of the Master in Design Studies Project Prize

Career Discovery Lead Instructor, Planning and Urban Design, Summer 2016

MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

MASTER IN CITY PLANNING, 2015

GPA 5.0/5.0

Concentrations: City Design and Development / Transportation

Thesis: "Drinking Fountains: The Past and Future of Free Public Water in the United States"

MIT Department of Urban Studies and Planning Graduate Student Fellowship, 2013 - 2015

Emerson Travel Grant, 2014

Teaching Assistant, Urban Design Skills and Big Plans, 2013 - 2014

Research Assistant to Professor Brent D. Ryan, 2014 - 2015

RICE UNIVERSITY

BACHELOR OF ARTS in Architecture, 2007 and BACHELOR OF ARCHITECTURE, 2009

SELECTED WORK EXPERIENCE

DYETT & BHATIA URBAN & REGIONAL PLANNERS

Senior Associate, Planner and Urban Designer, 2018 - present

Major projects: City of Sacramento 2040 General Plan Update, including policies to meet citywide carbon neutrality goals; Sonoma Developmental Center Specific Plan, for sustainable adaptive reuse of an historic campus set in a critical wildlife corridor; City of Oceanside's South Morro Hills Community Plan, an agritourism plan to preserve Oceanside's last agricultural area by allowing limited housing and tourist-oriented activities; City of Dixon General Plan Update, planning for development and ag-land preservation for a small town near Sacramento.

SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

Clean Energy Planner (Planner II) for the Power Enterprise, 2017 - 2018

Major projects: writing the San Francisco EV Roadmap as a member of the Mayor's Subcommittee on Electric Vehicle Infrastructure; collaboration with developers, campuses, and City departments expand clean power delivery; outreach documents for garnering agency support with the San Francisco Board of Supervisors and City department heads; bus advertisement concept and design; City-wide Regenerative Cities Advisory Group.

SWA GROUP

Designer for international landscape architecture, planning, and urban design firm, 2010 - 2013

Major projects: Google Shorebird Campus retrofit, including conversion of parking lots into recreation spaces; project management, including construction drawings and construction administration, for a 20-acre neighborhood park in San Ramon, California; a Specific Plan for a mixed-use infill project at the Solano Fairgrounds in Vallejo, California; urban design for the Suzhou Cultural Plaza; open space design for a health-focused retirement community in Tongxiang, China.

SWA Group Patrick A. Curran Fellow: Studied how designers can promote public health through the built environment; conducted primary research in Iceland, Denmark, and The Netherlands.

SWA Social Impact Design Advocacy Group founding member: supporting socially-conscious design within SWA.

VENTURI, SCOTT BROWN AND ASSOCIATES

One-year preceptorship program for Pritzker Prize-winning architecture and planning firm, 2007- 2008

Major projects: campus master plans for Bryn Mawr College and Haverford College; ADA retrofit of Carpenter's Hall, an Historic National Landmark in Philadelphia.

LEED Accredited Professional

jossie.ivanov@gmail.com | 916.832.8463